"From Within These Walls, " Come Wisdom,

FOREWORD

"Dear Old Brewer High We Greet You," the first line of our Alma Mater, poignantly reminds us that "From Within These Walls" come Wisdom, Knowledge, Service, Courage, Faith and Guidance. These influences daily affect each of us and will still be a part of our lives long after our days at Brewer have become fond memories. With these thoughts in mind we present this issue of the Bulldog, our school annual.

Knowledge, Service, Courage, Faith And Guidance

DEDICATION

We pay tribute to...

Mrs. B. A. Duckett

Mrs. E. G. Baten

Mr. Alvin Rucker

our beloved sponsors, for their countless hours of counsel, patience, understanding and inspiration.

ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATION

It affords me a great deal of pleasure to call to the attention of all citizens the very fine service which is rendered by Brewer High School to the youth of our community. Cooperation is the very basis upon which all activities are carried on, you will see evidence of this on the pages of this year-book.

We are very proud of the students, teachers and parents who labor together for an improved citizenry.

Thomas I. Dowling
Superintendent

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The sponsors and members of this senior class should look upon this yearbook with pride. Your efforts and the cooperation of the parents of these seniors can be seen with ease when we look upon the pages of this volume.

We hope that these pages will forever remind you of the practical lessons which we tried to teach you at Brewer. Remember, we will never be satisfied unless and until you become assets to society. This means that there are many sacrifices that you must make - many temptations that you must turn aside. This can be done if you keep before you our constant pleadings to hold yourselves up and to be living examples of good citizens.

Let us hope that each of you will live a full life that will reflect your appreciation to your parents who have freely given you so much. Yes, we are counting on you to make us all happy.

CLASS HISTORY

With the beginning of the 1954 school term, members of our class entered Brewer as underclassmen on a six years' journey through high school. Our sponsors were Mrs. E. G. Baten, Mrs. B. A. Duckett and Mrs. Jessie H. Woods. Most of our classmates returned in 1955 and our sponsors were the same as they had been during our first year.

We continued to move forward in achievement during our freshman year. Mary Ann Robinson was chosen "Miss Sweetheart." Two new sponsors, Mr. Alphonso Counts and Mr. Alvin Rucker, joined our group when we became sophomores. Rhunett Lindsay, a new classmate who came to us from Riverside High at Saluda, won first place in the Oratorical and Declamation contest. Dorothy Carter was chosen "Miss May Queen" and Bonnie Joe Williams was an attendant. Johnny Lake, Jr. served as a captain of the football team.

The various sections of our class were combined when we became juniors. We sent the senior class on an educational tour to Atlanta, Ga. Three of our classmates, Eula B. Walker, Charles Foster and Calvin Bryson, together with our sponsors, Mrs. Baten, Mrs. Duckett and Mr. Rucker, accompanied the seniors on the tour. Odell Howland and Charles Foster had roles in "Plain Sister," the senior class play. Class officers were Charles Foster, president; Calvin Bryson, vice president; Eula B. Walker, secretary; Magnolia Roundtree, assistant; Johnny Lake, Jr., treasurer; Henry Byrd, chaplain; Rhunett Lindsay, reporter; Robert Sibert, sgt-at-arms and Allen White, parliamentarian. We continued to win medals and other awards during this term. Mary Ann Robinson was "Miss Jabberwock" and Odell Howland won the "Charles Palmer Davis Award" for excellence in the study of current events. Sloan Morton, Jr. was elected co-captain of the football team.

Now that we are seniors we are facing the realization that we have almost reached our goal and all of us are looking forward to graduation. Dorothy Carter reigned as "Miss Homecoming" and Willie Lee Hodges was chosen "Miss High Miss." Holly Walker and Charles Middleton were co-captains of the football squad and ten members of our class were on the team. With the time drawing near for our completing of our high school work, we must write "finis" to this phase of our history. Our journey has not always been an easy one but we feel that with determination and perseverance we can reach higher goals.

CLASS PROPHECY

A look into the future reveals many interesting things about some of the members of our class. Although we do not profess to be prophets, we will, however, make a few predictions and leave for time to tell what our predictions will amount to.

In one year:

Ashber Anderson will be a professional dancer.

Four years from now:

Thomas Holloway, businessman; Rush Holmes, mortician; Bobby Norman, noncommissioned officer in U. S. Army; Barbara Partlow and Mildred Thompkins, seamstresses; Dorothy Martin, trained nurse and William Auls, brick mason.

Five Years from now:

Annie Lee Mosley, ballet dancer; Rosa Lee Davis, one of New York's top models; Sadie Mae Hamilton, family living teacher; John Middleton, engineer; Charles Middleton, renowned singer; Bobby Foggie, member of U. S. Navy; Mary Catherine Williams, creative dancer; Arthur Wright and Ralph Brown, members of U. S. Air Force; Vivian Edwards, registered nurse; Brenda Dillard, social studies teacher; Marian Hamilton, registered nurse; Lohona Williams and Dorothy Carter, physical education teachers; Gloria Mae Mosley, home economics teacher; Ida M. Sutton and Gloria Brooks, graduate nurses; Doris Hamilton, teacher at Howard University in Washington, D. C.; Willie Lee Hodges, U. N. secretary; Helen Williams, secretary; Shirley Ann Parker, home economics teacher; James A. Smith, farmer; James Bowie, member of U. S. Marine Corps; Evelyn Taggart, singer; Henrietta Mosley, actress; Magnolia Roundtree, commercial education teacher; Sara Tolbert, fashion designer; Cleveland Tolbert, insurance company executive; Sloan Morton, professional football star; Odell Howland, architect; Leroy Witt, elementary school teacher; Lillie Mae Kinard, teacher of family living; Esther Sprowl, home economics teacher; Edward White, member of U.S. Air Force; Cleveland Tolbert, member of U. S. Army; Holly Walker, professional basketball star; Mornonor Harrison, TV star; Effie Fisher, home economics teacher and Clifton Childs, prosperous businessman.

Seven years from now:

Bonnie Joe Williams, stenographer; Eddie Joe Thomas, professional football player; Willie James Wideman, lawyer; Willie Strawther, professional football player. Chris Dansby, pilot in U. S. Air Force; Robert Sibert, private detective; David Cullen, businessman, Mary Ann Robinson, Air Force Nurse and Ernest Cannon, high school principal.

Fifteen years from now:

Johnny Lake, Jr. leading research chemist and mathematician; Gerald Ellerbe, businessman and Timothy Watson, medical doctor.

CLASS POEM

Farewell Dear Brewer, the time has come for us to go.
We hate to leave because we love you so.
Our hearts are sad as we stand here,
Remembering the years we have been under your care
Though we are sad, we realize
That beyond your walls the whole world lies.
A world which offers to each of us
A chance to prove us worthy of your trust.
Now that the time has come that we must part,
Each feels a tinge of sadness in his heart.
But we all know that whether we go near or far,
Your influence follows like a guiding star.

Vivian Edwards

ALMA MATER

Dear old Brewer High we greet you,
And to you we sing our song.
We will honor, love and cherish,
And we'll never do thee wrong.

Chorus:

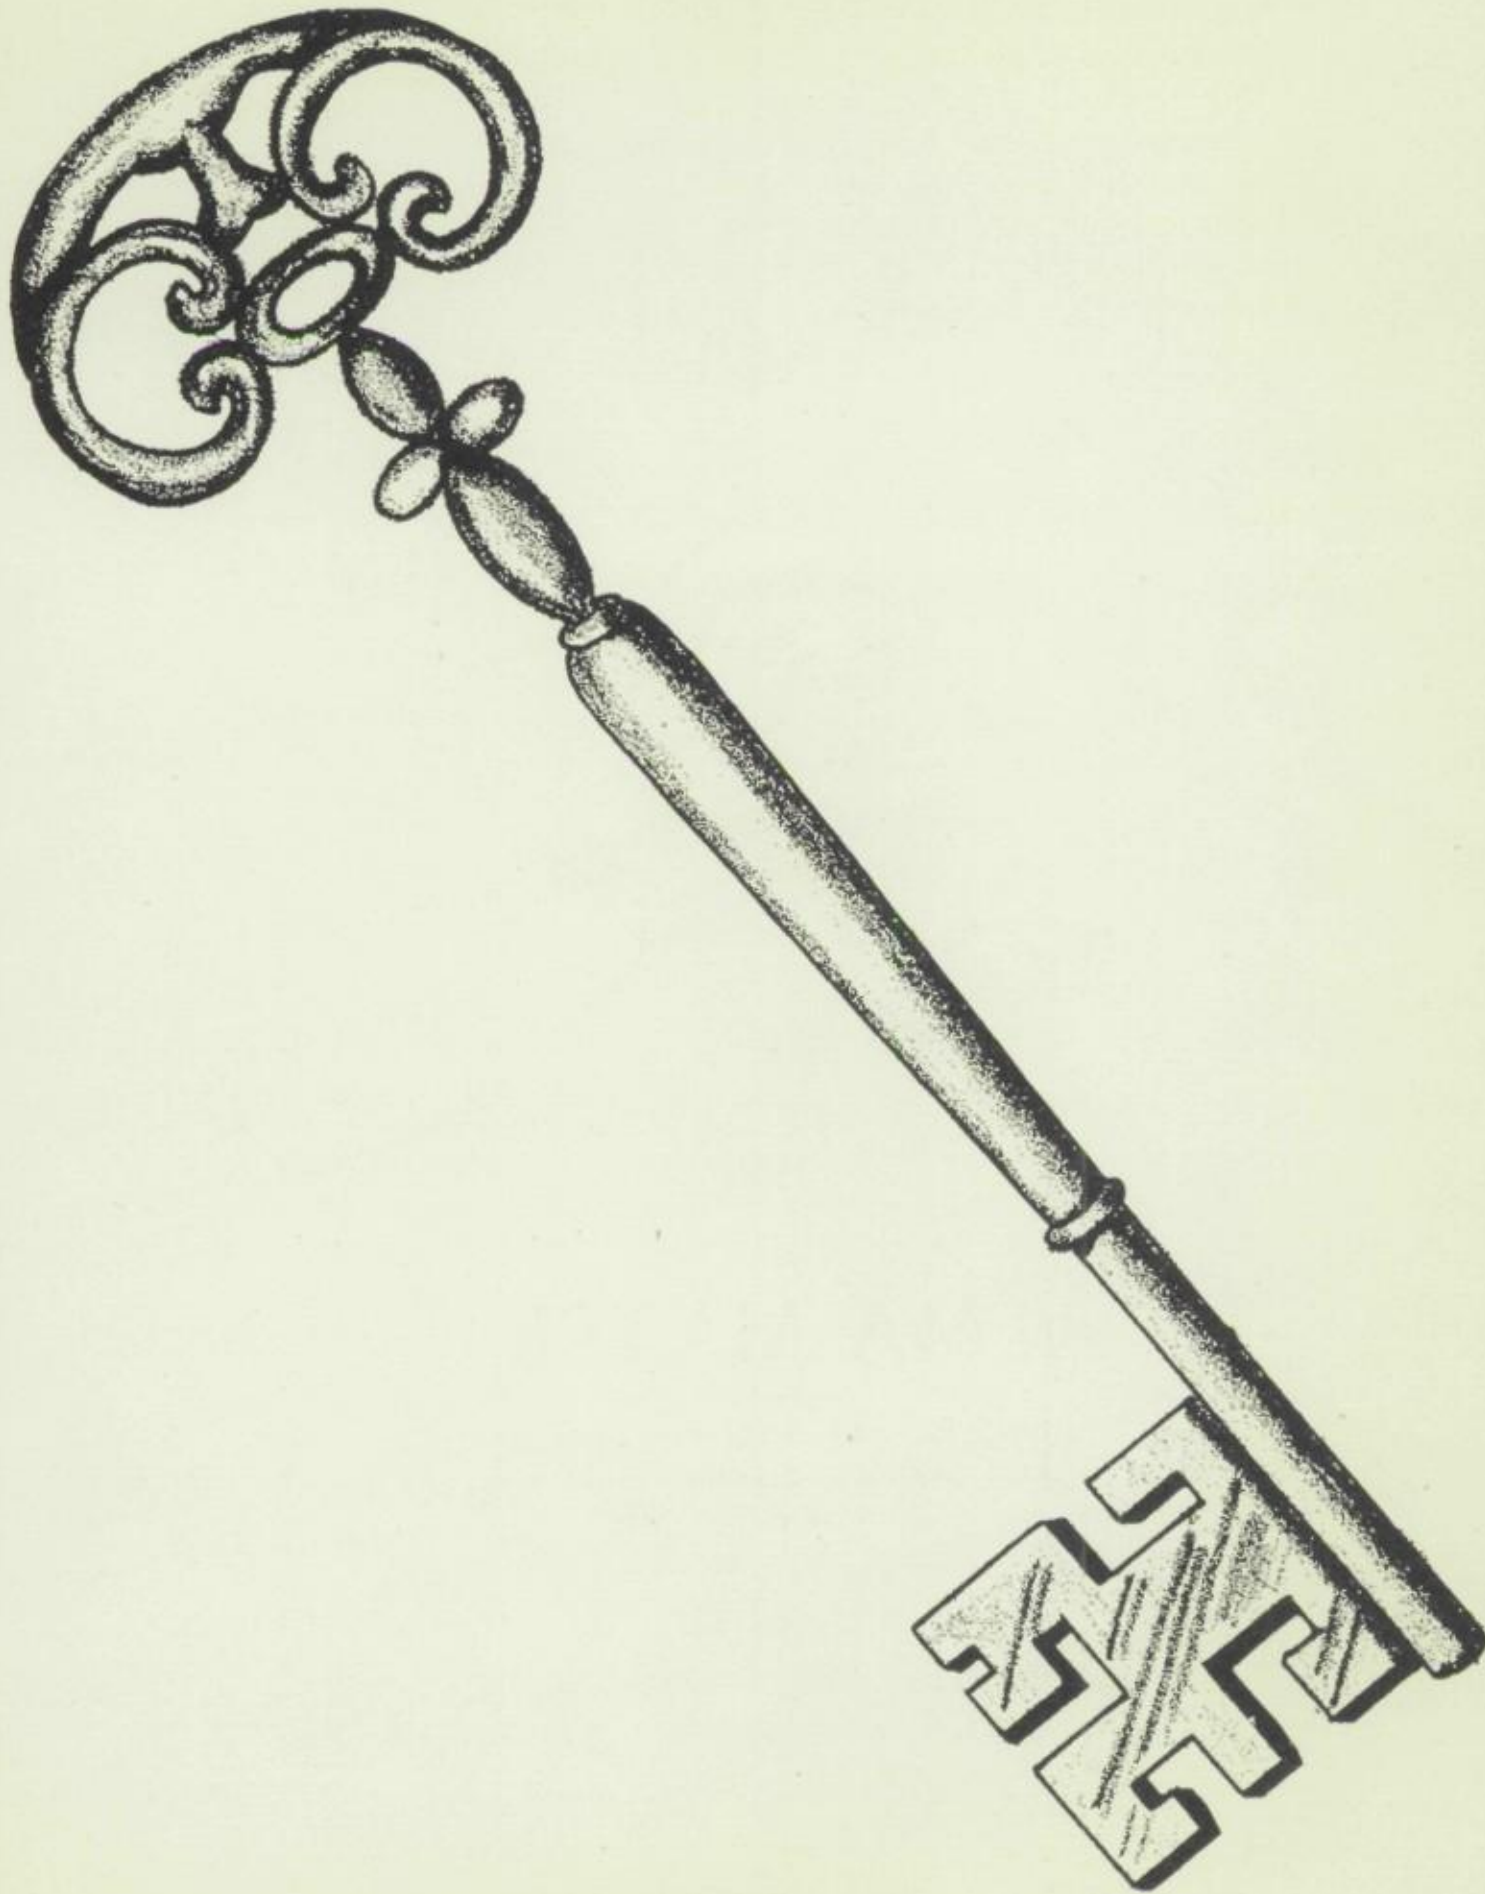

Hail, hail, dear Brewer, Brewer,
Hail, hail, dear B. H. S.
We will always love you,
As the very best.

We are proud that you have trained us
To face problems brave and true.
In the years that lie before us
We will always think of you.

Chorus:

Hail, hail, dear Brewer, Brewer.
Hail, hail, dear B. H. S.
We will always love you,
As the very best.
